

YOUNG ANNA MONOLOGUE

No, it can't be time for bed yet. Time for some more magic. Oh, please, Elsa. Please, please, please! Your magic is the most beautiful, most wonderful, most perfect thing in the whole wide world.

ANNA MONOLOGUE

This is nice, Elsa. Us talking. Maybe we can do it more often? And maybe ... we could keep the gates open? Let a little life back into the halls? Tell me why we can't? Who's stopping us? You're the Queen; you can do whatever you want. Elsa, come back. Where are you going?

ELSA MONOLOGUE

Anna! I'm so happy to see you. I never knew I could create something like this. You don't have to apologize. It wasn't your fault. Yes, Father & Mother know about my magic. I had to hide my powers for your own safety, Anna. I nearly killed you, and we were only six years old. My powers are much stronger than they were. You should probably go now, please!

OLAF MONOLOGUE

Anna? I picked the lock with my carrot nose - turns out it is cute and useful! Wait, Hans is the one who locked you in this cold room? I guess it wasn't true love. Love is putting someone else's needs before yours. We've got to go find Kristoff, before you freeze to death! He's the only one who can save your life!

KRISTOFF MONOLOGUE

Whoa! She blasted us all the way down the mountain! Anna, I'm not worried about my ice business - I'm worried about you! Your sister struck you with her powers. Actually, they're like family. They took Sven and me in when we had no one. And they're healers! I'll call them.

HANS MONOLOGUE

Anna, where are you? Anna! C'mon, keep moving up the mountain, everyone. We can no longer stand idly by in Arendelle. Climb faster, men! Princess Anna has been gone too long we must find her. Anna! Princess Anna! Follow me; if the Queen really is a Monster, then she will be dealt with.
